The kind of experience to expect...

On a scale of 1-10, this is a Level 7 or 'medium/heavy-paced' Samson tour. Keep in mind that your journey is not a 'vacation' per se; it's a pilgrimage to the most sacred land of the Bible. Every step will certainly have its reward, but some days will require a great deal of walking (up to 3 miles per day on average) and sometimes it will require a bit of exertion (some sites up to 100 steps (Megiddo, Jerusalem's Old City, etc).

Throughout the nearly 100 sites you will visit throughout the tour, you can expect to learn not only the biblical relevance of each site, but its modern importance as well. Your tour educator will weave into this journey a comprehensive knowledge of history (biblical and modern), archaeology, geology, botany, current affairs and other diverse subjects, as well as introduce you to the many diverse peoples who make up this sacred land, being Jews, Muslims, Druze, Christians, Bedouin and other minority groups.
