Rising for an early morning visit on the Temple Mount will start our day off early in an attempt to beat the crowds but be aware that queuing in line may take some time with no sitting area and only limited shade. Having experienced what is above we are going to go underneath the city's streets and homes as we explore the entire length of the Western wall in the excavations of the Western Wall Tunnels. Elah Valley - Archeological Dig at Tel Maresha – Beit Guvrin National Park, Beersheva (Tel Sheva), Tel Aviv – Farewell Culinary workshop - Jaffa

Today, we'll leave Jerusalem to visit the Shephelah (lower hill country) and the Negev (northern desert) regions. Our first stop in the Shephelah will be at the Elah Valley, where David conquered Goliath. You'll have time to visit the actual stream where this great biblical event occurred.

Next, we'll participate in an actual archaeological excavation, digging back in time to at least 2200 years ago during the Hasmonean period at the ancient city known as Beit Guvrin or Maresha, where the prophet Micah was from. At the end of our dig, we'll have the opportunity to crawl through tunnels that link us through the basements of these people's ancient homes. Note: You must bring closed-toed shoes and long pants for this experience.

Next up will be Beer Sheva in the Negev Desert, named by Abraham 4000 years ago. Since then, Beer Sheva has held an important place in the history of Israel. Next, we'll visit Tel Sheva where archaeologists have uncovered two-thirds of a city dating from the early Israelite period (10th century BCE.) This city is located on the edge of the wilderness near the confluence of the Beer Sheva and Hebron Streams. The meticulously planned water system of this city demonstrates impressive engineering expertise. As such - we have conquered the Ancient land of Israel from Dan to Beer Sheva!!

Yad vaShem Holocaust Memorial, Israel Museum, Shrine of the Book, Garden Tomb, Road to Emmanus, Farewell Dinner, Departure

Our morning begins in the hills of West Jerusalem following a scar on the Judean landscape that will never heal like the loss of European Jewry and the 1000 yrs of Jewish life that will fall as victims to the Nazi Holocaust. The Yad vaShem Memorial is for all those who were murdered, but also an exhibition for all of us to reflect and experience in order to ensure, that modern societies will never again fall to the depths of darkness as the era of attempted total eradication of human life by western societies. Israel as a nation will never meet a foreign dignitary before he/she has at least laid a reef at the hall of remembrance and we will visit the museum as well as the memorials in an attempt to deal with this enormous subject with a visit of 2 hours here.

Next, we will visit the Israel Museum and we visit the Shrine of the Book, where the Dead Sea Scrolls are displayed, the model of the 2nd temple Era and the archaeological wing of the national museum.

The climax and pinnacle of a pilgrimage tour is a visit to the Garden Tomb, where we will have worship and communion.
